BUSINESS RESPONSIBILITY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

Tarsons Products Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Tarsons" or "Company") has formulated this "Business Responsibility Policy" (the "Policy") in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 34 of SEBI (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, (hereinafter referred to as "Listing Regulations") and is based on National Voluntary Guidelines on Social, Environmental and Economic Responsibilities of Business ('Guidelines') published by Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA).

This Policy reaffirms the Company's commitment to follow the guidelines and ensures that the Company contributes towards sustainable development and fulfill its social, environmental and economic responsibilities. The Company aims to develop itself as a long term, sustainable business that delivers value for all its Stakeholders. For sustainable development, the management of the Company will endeavour to strike proper balance between economic, social and environmental performance in dealings with various stakeholders of the Group, namely, customers, investors, lenders, deposit holders and the society. The policy and its elements are applicable to all Departments and Verticals in the Company.

This Policy is adopted by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on 27th May, 2022 and is effective from the said date.

2. KEY PRINCIPLES

The Business Responsibility Report is based on the disclosures related to 9-principles developed by The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) as National Voluntary Guidelines (NVG). These principles cover a wide range of topics such as ethics and transparency, human rights, product responsibility, environment performance, health and wellbeing, corporate social responsibility, customer satisfaction etc. The purpose of this policy manual is to create policy statements which summarize our commitments towards each of these nine principles.

Principle 1: Businesses should conduct and govern themselves with integrity, and in a manner that is Ethical, Transparent and Accountable.

The Company is committed to conduct its business in accordance with the applicable laws, rules and regulations and with highest standards of business ethics. The Company has in place the Code of Conduct ("Code") for its Directors and Senior Management Personnel and their confirmations to the Code is obtained by the Company on periodical basis. Ethics, transparency and accountability are the founding principles of our organization.

This Policy is intended to provide guidance and help in recognizing and dealing with ethical issues, provide mechanisms to report unethical conduct, and to help foster a culture of honesty and accountability. The objective is to ensure the highest standards of ethical conduct, transparency and accountability while dealing with the stakeholders.

Terms:

- a. The Company will follow its governance structures, practices and procedures that ensures ethical conduct at all levels and promote the adoption of this principles across its value chain.

- d. The Company will endeavor to give priority to the regions that are underdeveloped near the business operations of the Company.
- e. Take initiatives towards understanding and addressing social impacts through volunteer programs, philanthropic contributions and other engagements

Principle 9: Businesses should engage with and provide value to their consumers in a responsible manner.

This principle is based on the fact that the basic aim of a business entity is to provide goods and services to its customers in a manner that creates value for both. The principle acknowledges that no business entity can exist or survive in the absence of its customers. The principle recognizes that customers have the freedom of choice in the selection and usage of goods and services, and that the enterprises will strive to make available goods that are safe, competitively priced, easy to use and safe to dispose of, for the benefit of their customers. The principle also recognizes that businesses have an obligation to mitigate the long-term adverse impacts that excessive consumption may have on the overall well-being of individuals, society and our planet.

Customers are one of the most important stakeholders. The foundation of the Company is based on the trust, satisfaction and loyalty of our consumers across the world. The Company's products are industrial chemical products and hence, it continuously strives to make available its products that are safe and competitively priced for the benefits of its customers/end users.

Terms:

Our policy to enhance customer value and satisfaction covers:

- a. The Company, while serving the needs of their customers, will take into account the overall well-being of the customers and that of society.
- b. The Company will ensure that they do not restrict the freedom of choice and free competition in any manner while designing, promoting and selling their products.
- c. The Company will disclose all information truthfully and factually, through labelling and other means, including the risks to the individual, to society and to the planet from the use of the products, so that the customers can exercise their freedom to consume in a responsible manner. Where required, the Company shall also educate their customers on the safe and responsible usage of their products and services.
- d. The Company will promote and advertise their products in ways that do not mislead or confuse the consumers or violate any of the principles in these Guidelines.
- e. The Company will exercise due care and caution while providing goods and services that result in over exploitation of natural resources or lead to excessive conspicuous consumption.
- f. The Company will provide adequate grievance handling mechanisms to address customer concerns and feedback.
